CORRECT STATIONERY.

Monograms of Ecclesiastical Letters

With Color Combinations. In stationery a monogram of ecc esiastical letters is much fater, and, therefore, more used than the acdress at the top of the paper. Many color ecombinations are employed in a quite effective manner. Gold on white or silver, white or a darker blue on blue are much liked. While many women cling to a heavy cream least paper in spite of all the changes of fashion, new ideas are introduced in paper as well as in other things. Those who follow every whim of fashion now use a mazzarin blue organdy, Turquoise blue, once very popular, is passe. Square sheets to be doubted once to go into a long, nairow envelope are en regle. Even the very small size, used for notes of exemony, have an extremely narrow envelope, but one quite a little longer than wide. In stationery a monogram of ecc estastic Fortunate are the possessors of an inheri-tance of the old-fashioned lace undersleaves, worn by our mothers and grandmothers. Their counterparts are now sold in the shops at very fair prices. Worn under the flowing sleeves of house gowns they lend a touch of grace and relinement.

The home is better than fringing for the table linen, especially for that intended for everyday the, as it is more durable. The hem may be finished with an ensultabling and several rows of drawn work, if desired, and even if this finish requires more time than the fringe it will give greater satisfaction in the future when the contents of the laundry.

DAINTY ACCESSORIES.

Alternate Rows of White Lace and White-and-Gold Ribbon. Among some prefty dress accessories seen recently was a vest and collar made ternate rows of narrow white lace insertion and a white and gold ribbon. Crossing the vest half way down, were two rows of lace applique embrodored in gold beads. Another yest had a deep yeke of tucked white Liberty saits striped with narrow bands of turquoise sik dotted with jet null beads. Below this tucked white mull was joined on by squares of lace applique.

Many of Them Unnecessary. Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Medicine Have Saved Many Women From the Surgeon's Knife.

Hospitals in our great cities are sad places to visit. Three-fourths of the patients lying on those snow-white beds are women and girls.

Why should this be the case?

Because they have neglected themselves.

Every one of these patients in the hospital beds had plenty of warning in that bearing-down feeling, pain at the left or right of the womb, nervous exhaustion, pain in the small of the back. All these things are indications of an unhealthy condition of the ovaries or womb. What a terrifying thought! these poor souls are lying there on those hospital beds awaiting a fearful operation. Do not drag along at home or in your place of employment until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an examination and possible operation. Build up the female system, cure the derangements which have signified themselves by danger signals, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved thousands of women from the hospital. Read the letter here published with the full consent of the writer, and see how she escaped the knife by a faithful reliance on Mrs. Pinkham's advice and treatment by her medicines.

If in doubt write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for free advice; her experience covers twenty years.

Here is Proof, Undeniable Proof, That Many Operations May Be Avoided.

"Dear Mrs. Pineham: — As I am a great sufferer of female trouble I thought I would write to you to see if you thought there was any positive help for me. I am very sore through my bowels, especially over the womb, and on the left side low down I will be taken with a dull sore pain, and in an hour will be so sore that I cannot move myself, and will have to be poulticed, and will be unable to walk for two or three weeks. I have a becharge at times. The doctor says I will have to go through an operation and have the left ovary removed. If you can help me let me hear from you soon."—Mss. M. G. Shively, Upson, Wis. "Dear Mrs. Pinkham: — When I wrote to you last fall in regard to my health, death would have been a welcome visitor to me, but I followed your advice and am now well. I had tried everything I could hear of, went to every doctor far and near, spent a great deal of money and received no benefit. At the time I wrote you I was saving up money to go to Chicago to have an operation upon the womb and ovaries which the doctor said unless I had I would die, but thanks to your remedies, I avoided this. I have taken eight bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, two of your Blood Purifier, and used four packages of Sanative, and am a well woman. I advise every woman suffering as I did to take Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies."—Mrs. M. G. Shively, Upson, Wis. (March 20, 1901.)
